

Closing the Gap between Strategy and Execution

Presenter: Tom Willingham, The Hampton Group

What would be possible if you consistently executed your strategy year after year?

Everything! It is possible and in this presentation you will learn how to make it happen. With 90% of companies failing to fully execute their strategic plans, Tom Willingham, President of The Hampton Group, has spent the last decade working with the Keyne Institute to understand what it takes for companies to close the Execution Gap and actually achieve the results they expect. Key concepts to be discussed include:

- 5 affirmations Leadership must understand for successful Execution
- 4 consistent actions of High Performing Organizations
- 3 Pillars of Execution Management
- 2 essential requirements for successful Execution Management
- 1 absolute imperative for Managing Execution down to an individual level

Are you seeing the results you expect and progress you know is possible in your organization?
